

West Midlands Green Business Clubs Network

Thursday 17 October 2013

European Bioenergy Research Institute (EBRI), Aston University, Aston Triangle,
Birmingham, B4 7ET

This exciting event will allow delegates to understand more about the grant funding opportunities available via Eco Business West Midlands and how resource efficiency can make their business more competitive. It will be especially relevant for businesses in the bioenergy sector as we will hear from the European Bioenergy Research Institute about the support available through the Bioenergy Support Network, and visit the brand new Pyroformer™ Gasifier Plant and laboratories at the Aston University campus.
