

West Midlands Climate Adaptation Partnership
Managing Overheating in Hospital Buildings

Tuesday 4 November 2014

MADE, 7 Newhall Square, Birmingham, B3 1RU

Aims of Event

- To understand the importance of tackling overheating due to the impact it can have on patients and staff, and appreciate different measures that can be implemented in hospital buildings to reduce the likelihood and intensity of overheating.
- To gain knowledge of tools that can help deal with overheating and to have an opportunity to discuss the issue with colleagues.
- To feed ideas into the development of the new WM NHS Sustainability Network and understand its purpose and objectives.

Agenda

09:15	Refreshments and networking
09:30	Welcome and introduction	Anna Bright, SWM
09:45	The impact of overheating on health and well-being of staff, patients and visitors	Mindy Hadi, BRE
10:10	Hospital design: The problem with overheating and measures that can be taken to minimise its impact	Michael Swainson, BRE
10:35	Robust Hospitals in a Changing Climate: The DeDerHECC project	Video
11:10	Refreshments and networking
11:25	Workshop 1: Opportunities and challenges of adapting hospital buildings and the subsequent impact on patient care. Followed by feedback	All
11:55	Official launch of the West Midlands NHS Sustainability Network	Clive Robinson (Chair), University Hospitals Coventry and Warwickshire NHS Trust
12:05	Workshop 2: Shaping the themes of the WM NHS Sustainability Network– your opportunity to feed in ideas	All
12:30	Close, lunch and networking

Sponsored by:

SKANSKA

Skanska Facilities Services is a leading national provider of FM services to the public and private sectors. We are committed to creating a deep green society where our services can have a positive impact on the environment and community. For our NHS clients, this means managing waste effectively from procurement to disposal and identifying and providing sources of funding for energy efficient improvements, all aiming to cut your costs and generate revenue for your balance sheet. For further details, please contact Dave Dowson, david.dowson@skanska.co.uk.

West Midlands Sustainability and Public Health Network
Public Health and Climate Adaptation Workshop
 Including Official Network Launch (PM)
 Tuesday 4 November 2014
MADE, 7 Newhall Square, Birmingham, B3 1RU

Aims of Event

- To understand why integrating climate resilience into public health practices is important and how it can complement public health priorities.
- To share good practice and to appreciate tools that are available to help embed climate adaptation into the public health sector.
- To have an opportunity to feed ideas into the development of the new WMSAPH Network and to understand its purpose and objectives.

Agenda

12:30	Lunch and networking
13:15	Welcome	John Middleton, Chair Alan Carr, SWM
13:30	Under the Weather Toolkit: Improving Health, Wellbeing and Resilience in a Changing Climate	Paul Fisher University of Birmingham
13:50	The importance of integrating climate adaptation and resilience into health agendas	Sonia Roschnik SDU
14:10	Case Study: Vulnerability mapping to climate impacts in Leeds	Robert Curtis Leeds City Council
14:30	Refreshments and networking
14:45	Workshop 1: How including resilience to climate change in public health priorities can provide opportunities.	All
15:30	Workshop 2: Shaping the themes of the WMSAPH – your opportunity to feed in ideas	All
16:15	Official launch of WM Sustainability and Public Health Network	John Middleton Alan Carr
16:30	Close	