

Climate Adaptation workshop for Local Authority officers

Friday 30 November – 9.30am-12.30pm

Hosted by Birmingham City Council, Room G01A, 1 Lancaster Circus,
Queensway, Birmingham

Agenda

- | | |
|-------------------|---|
| 9.30am – 10am | Registration and refreshments |
| 10am – 10.15am | Introduction to the session
Sian Thomas, Sustainability West Midlands |
| 10.15am – 10.45am | The national picture – update on the Environment Agency’s Climate Ready programme with additional focus on the Health and Wellbeing theme
Shelly Beckett, Environment Agency |
| 10.45am – 11.20am | Local Government and the Built Environment themes and their importance for Local Authorities
Hannah Mears and Caroline Duckworth, Environment Agency |
| 11.20am – 12pm | Best practice from Local Authorities in the West Midlands <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Climate change vulnerability maps and role on Local Adaptation Advisory Panel – Alan Carr, Staffordshire County Council.• Incorporating adaptation into overall risk management strategy - Jane Tattam and Andrew Greenall, Solihull Metropolitan Borough Council.• Design for future climate change project – Patrick Travis, Worcestershire County Council. |
| 12pm – 12.30pm | Q and A with best practice speakers and roundtable discussion on upcoming adaptation projects from all officers. |
| 12.30pm | Close for lunch, followed by additional SDON meeting. |

Lunch will not be provided but there is a cafe at Lancaster Circus